

E-HAPPENINGS

WESTERN NEVADA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

March 5-11, 2007

EVENTS

Millennium Nights Target High School Students, Parents

Tonight, 6-8 p.m. at the Fallon Convention Center &

Wednesday, March 7, 6-8 p.m. at WNCC Carson City Bristlecone Lobby

RSVP: 775-445-3263 – Kim Coker

Two Millennium Scholarship information sessions will offer a great chance for high school students and parents to learn about the Millennium Scholarship process, as well as academic programs and student activities at Western. Students and parents will be able to meet WNCC counselors, faculty, students, athletes, coaches, and student government leaders.

<http://www.wncc.edu/news/2007-02-22a.php>

Skills USA High School Students to Compete on Campus

Saturday, March 10, 8 a.m. – 3 p.m.

WNCC Carson City, Auto and Welding Shops

Info: 775-445-4458

More than 50 high school students from throughout Northern Nevada will compete in the Skills USA regional welding and automotive technical skills competitions, to be hosted at the college. Western faculty, staff and students will be among the 35 judges who will score the students as they test their skills in automotive valve inspections, wiring and customer service, and much more.

College Hosts Science Fair Awards Night

Tuesday, March 6, 6-8:30 p.m.

WNCC Carson City, Bristlecone Building

Info: 775-445-3000

Designed to foster an interest in science, engineering and math, the Carson City School District's annual Science Fair Awards night will highlight more than 100 winning projects from the students, who range from grades 1-8. The youth will also get to participate in and observe various science demonstrations.

ARTS

Fallon Art Students Present Schwitters' "Merzbau"

Through Friday, March 16

WNCC Fallon, Virgil Getto Hall Gallery

Students from the Watercolor, Visual Foundations, Drawing and Art Appreciation classes will present a creative interpretation of Kurt Schwitters' Dada masterwork. Schedule:

<http://www.wncc.edu/news/gallery/>

"Grapes" by April Oakden is an example of last year's watercolor work by WNCC Fallon students.

Chris Willson plays Schroeder and Caitlin Papp is Lucy in WNMTC's "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown."

WNMTC to Open "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown"

Weekends, March 30-April 8
Brewery Arts Center, Black Box
Theater, 449 W. King St.

Info: 775-445-3000

Happiness is two kinds of ice cream, sharing a secret...or reliving the sweet innocence of youth with Charlie Brown and Snoopy. The Western Nevada Musical Theatre Company will open its 2007 season with the celebrated characters of Charles Schultz's comic strip as they present the classic musical "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" in eight weekend performances.

Tickets: 775-445-4249.

<http://www.wncc.edu/news/2007-02-14a.php>

ATHLETICS

Wildcats Take Three of Four from No. 17-Ranked Team

The baseball team (10-11-1) grabbed three of four games last weekend against the College of Southern Idaho to even their conference record at 4-4. The Wildcats won Sunday's finale 3-2 on Chuck Howard's RBI double in the bottom of the seventh inning.

The Wildcats will play at home Friday and Saturday against Salt Lake Community College at John L. Harvey Field. A doubleheader begins each day at noon. Admission is free for WNCC students, $3 for faculty and staff, and $6 for general public. Come root the Wildcats on!

<http://www.wncc.edu/news/2007-03-01a.php>

Brad Carlsen scores the winning run in the nightcap on Sunday.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Learn About Retirement Planning in Free Webinar

Thursday, March 8, Noon to 1 p.m.

WNCC Carson City, Marlette Hall

Info: 775-445-4234 – Irene Tucker

Dallas Salisbury, CEO of the Employee Benefit Research Institute, will examine the future of retirement in the face of possible Social Security insolvency, the decline of the defined benefits plan and problems at the Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation. Also, hear the latest on the advantages and disadvantages of various retirement benefits alternatives.

<http://www.cupahr.org/webinars/descriptions.asp#030807>

COLLEGE CORNER

WNCC STUDENT IS IN ON "THE FIX" AT BREWERY ARTS CENTER

WNCC student Liz Tonkinson got some on-the-job experience when she served as assistant director for the recent Proscenium Players presentation of "The Fix" at the Brewery Arts Center. The musical, a hard-edged, hard-boiled commentary on the American political machine, played the last two weekends at the Donald W. Reynolds Theatre.

CARSON CITY BOOKSTORE TO GET A MAKEOVER

WNCC Carson City bookstore services will be relocated Monday, March 19-Monday, April 16, while the bookstore is redecorated. This project is funded by the Follett Corporation, which operates the bookstore, and will give the facility a completely new look. A temporary bookstore with basic materials for the campus will be open in Aspen Building, Rm. 226, during the closure.

APPLEBEE'S RESTAURANT TO DONATE 15 PERCENT TO WNCC NURSES

Everyone who brings in an "Eatin' Here is Good for the Neighborhood" flier to Applebee's Restaurant, 3300 S. Carson St., will have 15 percent of their purchase donated to the WNCC National Students Nurses Association on Tuesday, March 6. Fliers are available at the WNCC Carson City information desk. Info: Mo Lockey at 775-445-3294.

BUY SEE'S CANDIES FOR EASTER

The Classified Council is selling See's Candies packages for Easter. All of the chocolate items cost $5 each. Contact Irene Tucker at 775-445-4234 in Carson City or Ginny Dugan 775-423-7565 in Fallon to place an order today!

HUMAN RESOURCES TIP: NSHE CHANGE ASSISTS THOSE WHO RECEIVE ELECTRONIC PAY ADVICES

The Nevada System of Higher Education System Computing Services recently implemented a change to the Employee Self Service System affecting anyone who receives their pay advices electronically. When employees click on the e-mail link that says the pay advice is available and log in to ESS, they will now go directly to their pay advice. Info: Irene Tucker at 775-445-4234.

SAVE THE DATE

Thursday-Friday, March 15-16

Nevada System of Higher Education Board of Regents Meeting
WNCC Carson City, Sarah Winnemucca Hall

Friday, March 16, 1 & 4 p.m. and Saturday, March 17, Noon and 3 p.m.

Wildcats Baseball vs. Colorado Northwestern Community College, Rangley, Colo.
Stats, scores and schedule: <http://www.wncc.edu/athletics/baseball/season.php>